Church News

St. Andrew's Plans Canvass

More than 100 members of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church will call on members of the parish during the annual Every Member Canvass next Sunday, it was announced this week by Father Hugh R. Percy, rector of the church.

Canvassers who will be asking St. Andrew's families for their voluntary pledges will be working under the direction of James O. Cayton and James W. Newbord, co-chairmen for the project.

Expansion Completed
"St. Andrew's has just completed a major expansion program, doubling its seating capacity and adding many beautiful church furnishings," Father Percy reported.

"The Every Member Canvass this year has special significance because no capital fund drive is planned to pay the cost of the expansion," he emphasized. He stressed that voluntary offerings through pledges are expected to maintain the church budget and to begin retiring the debt contracted for the enlargement program.

New Departure
"This departure from the usual church funding custom is new and somewhat daring," the rector said.

"I and parish leaders are confident that our faith in St. Andrew's families is fully justified," he said.

Each family of the parish will be visited during the Sunday pledge drive. The Every Member Canvass is conducted annually in October and November by all Protestant Episcopal churches.

BAPTISTS WILL HOST GATHERING

The Narbonne Ave. Southern Baptist Church of Lomita will serve as host church to the Southern Baptists' annual Los Angeles associational meeting today and tomorrow.

This is one of the four associations in Los Angeles county, with 112 churches and 30 mission churches in the four groups. The Los Angeles Assn. is the largest of the area with 50 churches and 15 mission churches.

The youth organizations of the church were featured at the night service last Sunday. The annual charter presentation was made by the brotherhood president, Robert Dearborn. Eight boys received recognition for advancement in rank.

The church Sunday School has set a goal of reaching and enrolling 1400 additional persons by the end of the church year, 1958. The training union goal is set for 500.

Los Crusados Will Observe Columbus Day

Members of the Los Crusados Council of the Knights of Columbus will join with 2000 other knights from Southern California in the religious observance of this Saturday.

A solemn mass will be offered at 9:30 a.m. at St. Vian's Cathedral by his excellency, the Most Rev. Aldon J. Bell, auxiliary bishop of Los Angeles and state chaplain of the Knights of Columbus.

Grand Knight Lou Fucet of the local council will head the local delegation attending. Deputy Knight Don Whann and Ed Olson are in charge of transportation to the mass.

An open house for members and guests will complete the observance. Chairman Ed Greene said members will use the newly redecorated clubhouse, with a Swiss chalet theme, for the first time. Remodeling was headed by Jack Steinberg.

Walter Von Der Ahe, chairman of refreshments, promised hors d'oeuvres and background music by wandering minstrels.

Rev. Kuester Tells Topic For Sunday

"God's Redemptive Program and You" will be the subject of the Rev. H. Earl Kuester, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd., at the duplicate morning services Sunday, 8:30 and 11 a.m.

In the evening at 7:30 o'clock the Rev. H. Leslie Christie, director of evangelism for the Los Angeles City Mission Society, will speak on "Summer Is Over." At the close of the evening service Rev. Christie will meet with the members of the church who have volunteered to serve in the evangelism visitation campaign.

Tomorrow evening the college age youth will hold a dinner with Chuck Cluff as speaker in preparation for their evangelism calling on Saturday and Sunday. On Monday evening at 6 p.m. the adult volunteer callers will have dinner at the church and then go calling.
